

Condé Nast Traveller

TRUTH IN TRAVEL

DECEMBER 2011 £3.95

WIN
A LUXURY
MALDIVES
HOLIDAY

Indian Ocean

Coral reefs and white sands in the Seychelles

Authentic Morocco

The sleepy seaside
town of Essaouira

Northern Lights

Where to see the natural world's greatest wonder

Melbourne

Christmas markets

Insider Miami

9 771368 597112

Escape the crowds

The Canary Islands, but not as you know them

4 MORE SKI CHALETs IN UNUSUAL PLACES

CHALET CHARR, ST-LUC, VAL
D'ANNIVIERS, SWITZERLAND

The Val d'Anniviers above St Luc is the final frontier of uncommercialised Swiss skiing. Designed by its owner, this hi-tech chalet is decorated with family heirlooms, Persian rugs, furs, tweeds and bespoke furniture. 01947 896391; www.chaletcharr.co.uk. Sleeps eight, from £8,500 per week half-board

THE CHALET AT 11° EAST,
OBERGURGEL, AUSTRIA

British-owned luxury chalets are rare in Austria; this is the only one in snowless Obergurgel. It is built in a traditional style but has contemporary interiors, with cowhide wall hangings. Sleeps 10 in four bedrooms and a bunk room. A children's ski school is nearby. 01483 894183; www.chalet11.co.uk. From £14,000 per week half-board

MAISON BLANCHE & VERTE,
CHATEL, FRANCE

The smartest new chalet in the Portes du Soleil ski area, blending stylish design and traditional Savoyard wood and stone. It sleeps 12 in six bedrooms; extras include a spa with indoor pool, gym, cinema, and a wine cellar. 003 3074 1130; www.maisonblanchechalet.com. From £30,000 per week; includes six dinners, open bar, transfers and chauffeur service

THE PEAK, SAINTE FOY, FRANCE

Sainte-Foy is a charming little resort famed for its off-piste and within an easy drive of Val d'Isère, Tignes and Les Arcs. The Peak is a new boutique chalet on the edge of the slopes. It sleeps up to 16 in eight suites on four floors. The wellness centre includes sauna and steam room and there's a balcony hot tub. 0870 383 0000/00 33 4 79 06 30 55; www.premiersneige.com. From £14,784 per week half-board